UM has a campus that's beauty unrivaled by others. Energetic joggers and frisbee fanatics enjoy the gorgeous grounds. UM has a campus that is a typical portrait of the genteel South — calm, quiet and very peaceful.

But when the night washes over the campus like a wave . . .

Formerly normal, quiet, reserved individuals slowly evolve into punk rockers. Students showed their true colors at New Wave Night this fall.

College Night, UM's one tradition that stands apart from any other, was a true success this year. Both sides worked hard and presented shows to be proud of. Purple leaders were Karen Wingate and Michael Johnson. The Gold side was led by Robyn McQueen and Glen Gray.

1981 LEADERS

Loyal leaders make a switch. On the left, Gold leaders Robyn McQueen and Glen Gray. To the right, Purple leaders Karen Wingate and Michael Johnson. Look to your right if you want to see the "true colors" of College Night 1981.

GOLD

Gold and Purple spirit was high this year as it is every year. The Purples got a boost when a former Purple, University photographer, Keith Harrelson, was awarded the 1981 College Night Dedication.

The sports activities that are incorporated into the College Night competition are a way for many students to become involved in College Night. Students who would not usually be involved in the production of a musical-comedy-drama, can be an important part of the entire competition through sports.

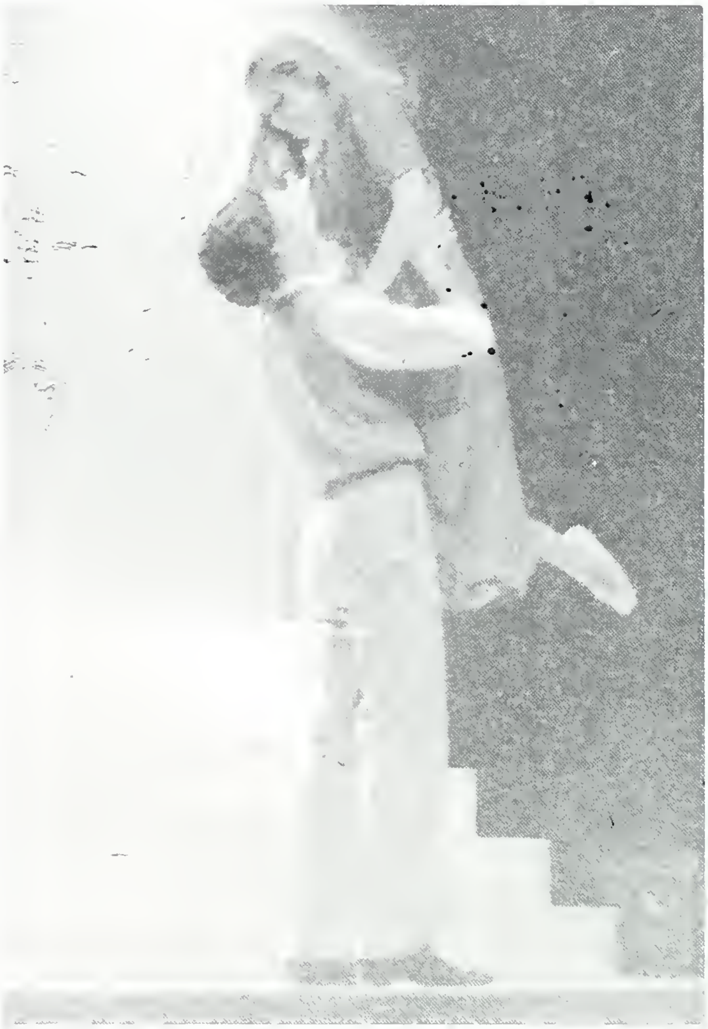
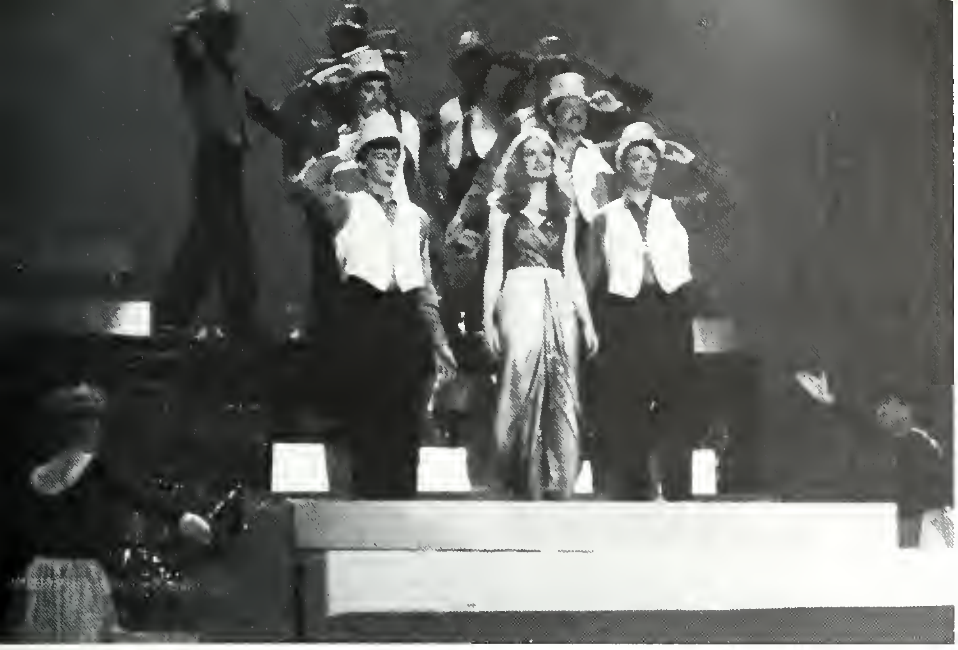
Purple and Gold cheerleaders play an integral part in team spirit. This year's cheerleaders did an excellent job attending and cheering at all important events in a tight College Night schedule.

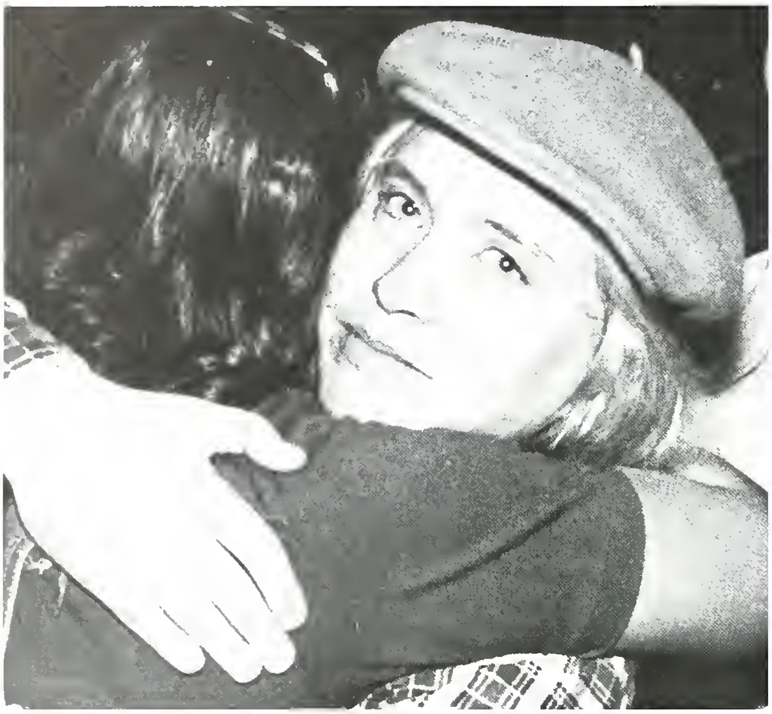
Many friendships are formed during the long nights of rehearsals for College Night. The crazy experiences of these times of preparation are the things that many students will remember for years to come.

"Give Me Gold" the 1981 Gold production was a lively spoof of pirates and island paradises. The jungle natives that opened the show were a wild success with the audience. The natives, along with beautiful lighting and sets, highlighted the play.





The 1981 Purple Show, "The Imperial Gala of 1943" was the story of the Imperial Theater's struggle to stay afloat. Into this theme the Purples brought in fantastic music and oneliners that kept the audience rolling in the aisles.



After working for so long, it is very difficult to accept a College Night loss. This year's contest was very close, with the Purples losing by only one point. Although a loss is heartbreaking, the love and friendship gained through participation are the true reasons for carrying on the College Night tradition.

STUDENT LIFE

UM's HIGHEST AWARD

Seniors Brian Davis and Terri Pike were awarded the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award at Honors Day 1981. The award is given to the two seniors who most represent the true spirit of Montevallo.

Student Life at UM in Past Years

TRADITIONS

Freshman Traditions Honored in Past Years

Freshmen shall be held responsible for knowing all the Student Government Handbook and shall be expected to follow all these rules "to the letter."

Freshmen are encouraged to attend all athletic and social events sponsored by the SGA.

Freshmen shall enter and leave by the side doors of Palmer until the end of the Tradition Period.

No freshmen shall enter the front gate and walk the path from Napier to Main Residence Hall where the first male students walked. Only at the end of the Traditions Period shall they receive this honor.

Freshmen are required to follow "freshman courtesies" at all times:

> The freshmen shall greet everyone he meets on campus.
> Freshmen shall enter all doors after upperclassmen and faculty.
> Freshmen shall knock before entering the room of an upperclassman.

Freshman Week will begin the day upperclassmen arrive on campus and continue for that week and the week following. This shall be a period of activities encouraging the unified spirit which is the University of Montevallo.

Freshmen shall be required to learn the Alma Mater and shall show respect for it throughout their career at the University.

1981 saw the opening of Ramsay Conference Center. The Conference Center formerly served as a men's dormitory. It is now available for meetings and hotel-like accommodations.

EVENTS

SENIOR MARCH

Senior March, although it has gone through many changes year after year, it is still very much alive. "Pray for the Dead, and the Dead will pray for you," can still cause underclasswomen to scream and rush into dorm rooms behind locked doors.

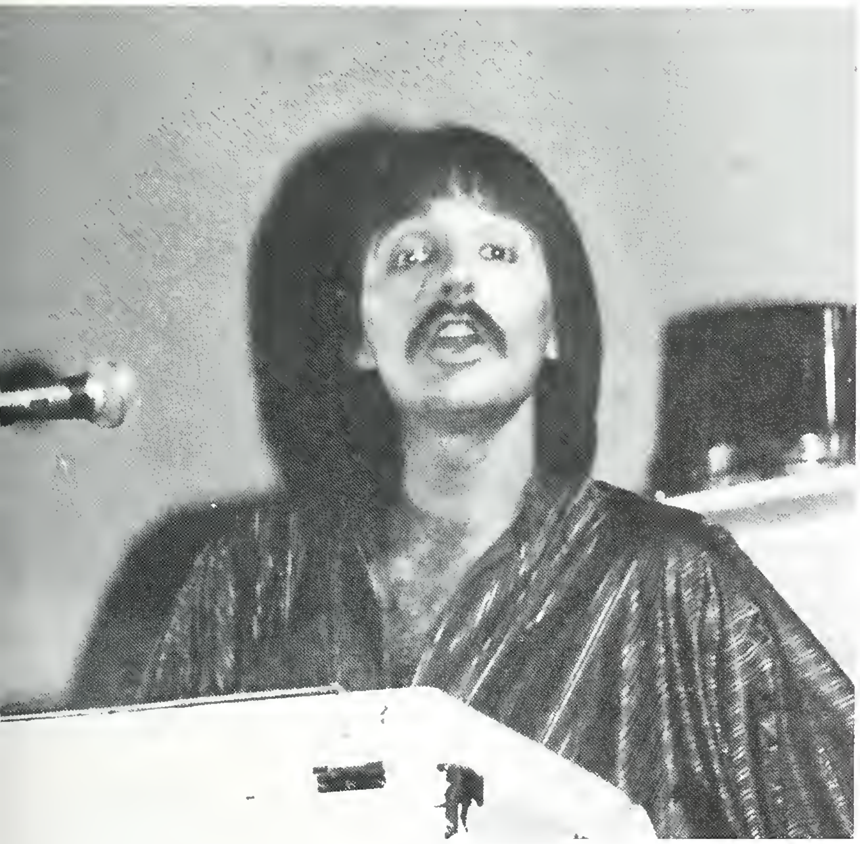
MONTEVALLO

NEW WAVE

"New Wave Night" at the campus lakehouse, was billed as a chance for students to show their real New Wave colors. These students certainly wouldn't go to class dressed like this, or would they?

ELI ON

THE QUAD



Eli, one of the most unique bands to ever perform at UM, came to campus early in the fall semester to entertain students on the Quad. Their hard rock music, combined with visual effects, was a real boost to students just getting back to the campus for a long semester of hard work.

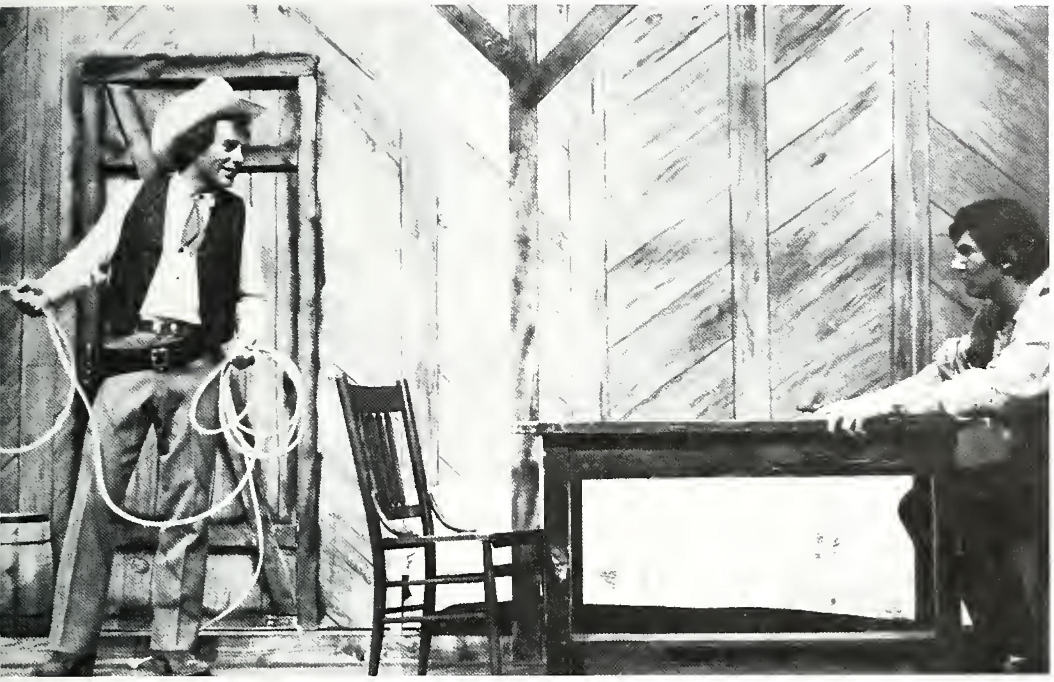
UM PRESENTS

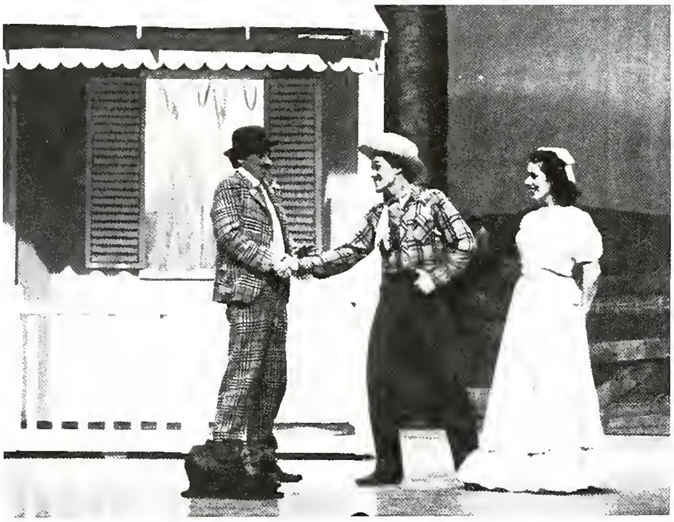
This year, instead of presenting their traditional "Musical Scenes," the Lyric Theater brought to UM the American musical, "The Music Man." The show, complete with its own high school band, was a huge success.

"THE MUSIC MAN"

UM's Lyric Theater's second production this year was the world famous "Oklahoma." The lively drama was a big hit on campus and throughout the area. Once again the Lyric Theater did a superior job for the University.

"OKLAHOMA"





CHILDREN'S THEATER

This spring's Children's Theater production was "Land of the Dragon." Lovely costumes and complicated make-up helped to make the show a great success with the children.

GARDEN DISTRICT

During the Spring semester UM's excellent Theater Department performed three of the great Tennessee Williams' plays. All three plays were incorporated into one evening of drama, called "The Garden District."

"A DELICATE

BALANCE"

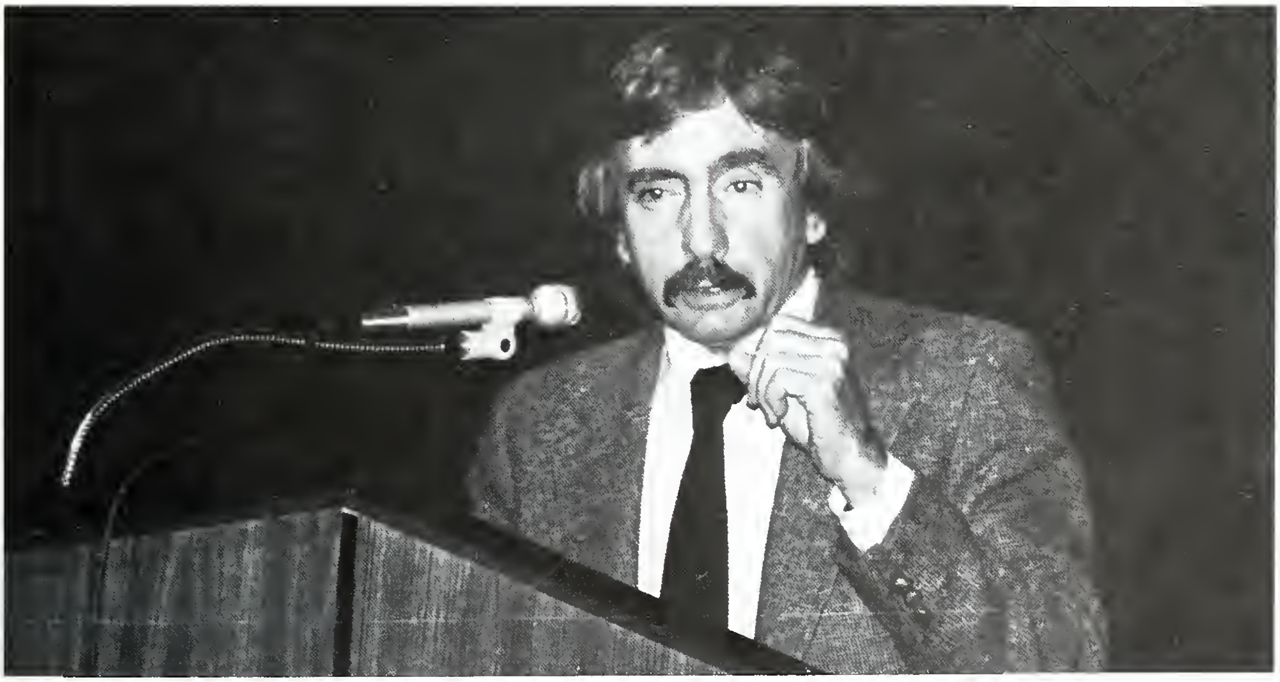
Edward Albee's "A Delicate Balance," was presented on campus when the famous author was visiting UM. After the performance, Albee gave a critique of the production, giving high marks to several of UM's actors.

CATALINA CLUB

Catalina, UM's synchronized swimming team, gave a presentation filled with comedy, precision and sheer entertainment.

ALBEE SPEAKS AT UM

Famous author Edward Albee spoke to UM students both in formal and informal settings during his visit in the fall. Students gained much from his lectures and question and answer sessions.



VALLO JAM

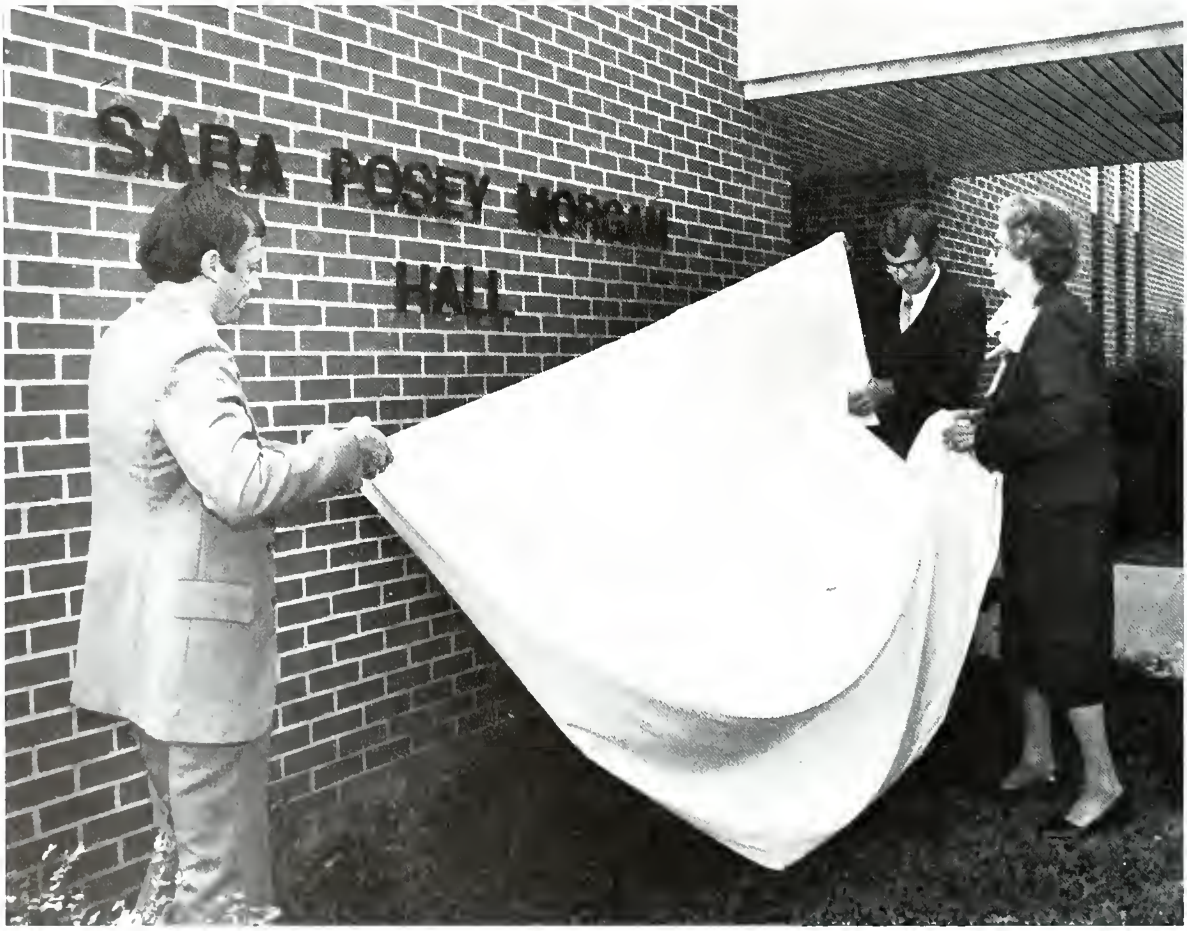
ALL NIGHT LONG

Montevallo Madness 1980
HAWAI

Vallo Jam, an annual RHA "slumber party" is just plain fun for everyone involved. This year's evening was highlighted by a concert from UM's own infamous Vallo Jam Band.

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS DEDICATION

Dr. Vickrey, Dean Word and Dr. Morgan unveil the new name for the Business Buildings — Sarah Posey Morgan Hall. Dr. Morgan was a dedicated faculty member in the College of Business.



BASEBALL FIELD DEDICATION

Former UM President Kermit Johnson is honored by having UM's baseball field named for him. The field now has lights, and night games are possible at UM for the first time.

HOTEL

HOTEL entertained UM during the Fall and Spring semesters. The group members include Marc Phillips, Lee Bargeron, George Creasman, Tommy Colton, Michael Cadenhead, and Michael Reid. The concerts were enjoyed by all!

Fledglings

(For Ruth Gayle Cunningham)

As I talk to these children hovering on the verge of man and woman, I remember the hanging back
Of my own fledgling, the alternate terror and joke
A child invokes, its claws frozen on the nest-edge.

Fly, I hear myself say now, though they're not my young,
And suddenly I see they are heavy as stones —
I see we are all of us heavy as stones —
How many years is it now I've been falling?

Then two of them, a thin, overbright white
Boy and a slower, steadier Negro girl,
Striking out, each making a fluttering whirl
And I know those two have already dreamt of the flight.

Oh, now the whole classroom is beating leaky wings
As if flying were a mere child's pantomime.
What a moment it is, what a mortal time —
Is there any plummet or flight as sheer as the fledgling's?

Entitles You to Membership

During my year as MONTAGE editor, I learned a great deal. I learned, in a very personal way, about loyalty and responsibility. I feel that my year as editor has done for m what no other experience ever could.

I would like to thank Julia Rudd for her dedication and friendship. She was alway there and always helped me in any way possible. I would also like to thank Tomm Roach not only for her excellent work as Business Manager, but for her friendship, too.

I hope that as a student glancing through this book for the first few times that you wi enjoy it. However, I hope that you grow to love it ten or fifteen or even fifty years fro now when it can bring back memories for you.

Much hard work, quite a bit of frustration and a lot of true emotion went into th preparation of this yearbook. I hope that you have enjoyed it.

Rona Phillips
